MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID Malaysia

STANDARD MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID: INSTRUCTOR COURSE

APPLY TO BECOME A MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID INSTRUCTOR

Mental Health First Aid Instructor Training (Training of Trainers) is for selected candidates who fulfil the eligibility criteria. The 5-day course requires participants to demonstrate their understanding of the topics and practice their presentation skills on segments of the sessions allocated.

As accredited MHFA Instructors, you can conduct training and collect fees, subjected to Terms of Instructor Agreement to be signed.

Eligibility Criteria

a) Have attended 2-day MHFA course and a certified Mental Health First Aider
b) Positive attitudes towards people with mental illness
c) Passionate and enthusiasm to deliver MHFA course
d) Good Interpersonal and communication skills
e) Good business plan or organisational support to conduct MHFA courses
f) Personal or working experience in supporting people with mental illness; or working experience in the Malaysian healthcare system will be an advantage.

Course Format

This intensive 5-day course, accredits successful applicants to conduct the 14-hour Standard MHFA course.

Who can attend?

An accredited MHFAider.

Accreditation

Participants who pass the Assessment Test at the end of the course, and successfully conducted one MHFA course under supervision, will be certified as Accredited MHFA Instructor. Accredited MHFA Instructors are required to conduct a minimum of 2 training courses per year to remain accredited.

Fees

RM 8,000 per participant.
This covers course material, venue (private seminar rooms), lunch and tea.

* subject to changes

HRDCORP CLAIMABLE

To register or for more information, contact us at:

+60 3 - 2780 6803 admin@mhfa.org.my www.mmha.org.my